THE COP'S BRIDE.
By Paul Terry

Motorcycle cop Waffles loves little Kitty. But old Al, the farmer, having no love for this minon of the law, chases him away when he sees the two sitting too close together.

Later the farmer calls upon this self-same Waffles to rescue little Kitty from the mean old bandits who have stolen her from Al's theshold.

The blue coat does, but only after a running battle with the gangsters and a fight in Al's dark cellar, an explosion in which blows up the house.

AESOP SAYS:---

"AUTOMOBILES MAY BE MAKING THE LEGS OF MEN WEAK, BUT THERE ARE STILL SOME LONG RUNS IN WOMEN'S STOCKINGS."
